

U.S. – CHINA TRADE RELATIONS: IS A TRADE WAR INEVITABLE?

TUESDAY, AUGUST 7, 2018 | 5:15 – 7:00 PM

Join our distinguished panel as they discuss current U.S. – China trade relations and how our State and Local Southern California economies and two Ports might be impacted if a ‘trade war’ cannot be averted.

MODERATOR

Clayton Dube

Executive Director, USC US – China Institute

SPEAKERS

Brian Peck

Director, Transnational Law & Business Center
and Assistant Professor of Law,
USC Gould School of Law

Robert Sun

Founder & President, American-Chinese CEO
Society

---

PANEL DISCUSSION VENUE:

Law Offices of Keesal, Young & Logan
14th FL, 400 Oceangate,
Long Beach, CA, 90801

PARTICIPATE

Table Sponsors
(Table of 10 plus
Program Recognition: $250)
Single Event Tickets: $20
Special Student Rate: $10

MORE INFORMATION & REGISTRATION:

www.lbqa.org
For Press Release and Conference Details please contact David Griffith @ (562) 240-1040 or David@DGriffLaw.com